

Edgefield County Emergency Medical Service Privacy Policy

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED, AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Purpose of this Notice: Edgefield County Emergency Medical Service is required by law to maintain the privacy of certain confidential health care information, known as Protected Health Information, or PHI, and to provide you with a notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your PHI. This notice describes your legal rights, advises you of our privacy practices and lets you know how Edgefield County EMS is permitted to use and disclose PHI about you.

Edgefield County EMS is also required to abide by the terms of the version of this notice currently in effect. In most situations we may use this information as described in this notice without your permission, but there are some situations where we may use it only after we obtain your written authorization, if we are required by law to do so.

USES and Disclosures of PHI: Edgefield County EMS may use PHI for purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations, in most cases without your written permission. Examples of our use of your PHI:

For Treatment: This Includes such things as verbal and written information that we obtain about you and use pertaining to your medical condition and treatment provided to you by us and other medical personnel (including doctors and nurses who give orders to allow us to provide treatment to you). It also includes information we give to other health care personnel to whom we transfer your care and treatment, and includes the transfer of PHI via radio or telephone to the hospital or dispatch center, as well as providing the hospital with a copy of the written record we create in the course of providing you with treatment and transportation.

For Payment: This includes any activities we must undertake in order to get reimbursed for the services we provide to you, including such things as organizing your PHI and submitting bills to insurance companies (either directly or through a third party billing company), management of billed claims for services rendered, medical necessity determinations and reviews, utilization review, and collection of outstanding accounts.

For Health Care Operations: This Includes quality assurance activities, licensing, and training programs to ensure that our personnel meet our standards of care and follow established policies and procedures, obtaining legal and financial services, conducting business planning, processing grievances and complaints, creating reports that do not individually identify you for data collection purposes, fundraising and certain marketing activities.

Reminders for scheduled transports and information on other services: We may also contact you to provide you with a reminder of any scheduled appointments for non-emergency ambulance and medical transportation, or for other information about alternative services we provide, or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Use and Disclosure of PHI without Your Authorization: Edgefield County EMS is permitted to use PHI without your written authorization, or opportunity to object, in certain situations, including:

- For Edgefield County EMS to use in treating you or in obtaining payment of services provided to you or in other health care operations;
- For the treatment activities of another health care provider;
- To another health care provider or entity for the payment activities of the provider or entity that receives the information (such as your hospital or insurance company);
- To another health care provider (such as the hospital to which you were transported) for the health care operations activities of the entity that receives the information as long as the entity receiving the information has had a relationship with you and the PHI pertains to that relationship;
- To a public health authority in certain situations such as reporting a birth, death, or disease as required by law, as part of a public health investigation, to report child abuse or neglect or domestic violence, to report adverse events such as product defects, or to notify a person about exposure to a possible communicable disease as required by law;
- For health oversight activities including audits or government investigations, inspections, disciplinary proceedings, and other administrative or judicial actions undertaken by the government (or their contractors) by law to oversee the health care system;
- For judicial and administrative proceedings as required by a court or administrative order, or in some cases in response to a subpoena or other legal process;
- For law enforcement activities in limited situations, such as when there is a warrant for the request, or when the information is needed to locate a suspect or to stop a crime;
- To a family member, or other relative, or close personal friend or other individual involved in your care if we obtain a verbal agreement to do so or if we give you an opportunity to object to such a disclosure and you do not raise an objection. We may also disclose health information to your family, relatives, or friends if we infer from the circumstances that you would not object. For Example, we may assume that you agree to our disclosure of your personal health information to your spouse when your spouse has called the ambulance for you. In situations where you are not capable of objecting (because you are not present or due to your incapacity or medical emergency), we may, in our professional judgment, determine that a disclosure to your family member, relative, or friend is in your best interest. In that situation, we will disclose only health information relevant to that person's involvement in your care. For Example, we may inform the person who accompanied you in the ambulance that you have certain symptoms, and we may give that person an update on your vital signs and treatment that is being administered by our ambulance crew;
- For military, national defense, security, and other special government functions;
- For health care fraud and abuse detection, or for activities related to compliance with the law;
- To avert a serious threat to the health and safety of a person or the public at large;
- For worker's compensation purposes, and non-compliance with worker's compensation laws;
- To coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors for identifying a deceased person, determining the cause of death, or carrying out their duties as authorized by law;

- If you are an organ donor, we may release health information to organizations that handle organ procurement; or organ, eye, or tissue transplantation; or to an organ bank; as necessary to facilitate organ donation and transplantation;
- For Research projects, but this will be subject to strict oversight and approvals, and health information will be released only when there is a minimal risk to your privacy, and adequate safeguards are in place in accordance with the law;
- We may use or disclose health information about you in a way that does not personally identify you or reveal who you are.

Any other use or disclosure of PHI, other than those listed above will only be made with your written authorization (the authorization must specifically identify the information we seek to use or disclose, as well as when and how we seek to use or disclose it).

You may revoke your authorization at any time, in writing, except to the extent that we have already used or disclosed medical information in reliance on that authorization.

Patient's Rights: As a patient, you have a number of rights with respect to the protection of your PHI including:

The Right to Access, Copy, or Inspect your PHI: This means that you may come by our offices and inspect and copy most of the medical information about you that we maintain. We will normally provide you with access to this information within 30 days of your request. We may also charge you a reasonable fee for you to copy any medical information that you have the right to access. In limited circumstances, we may deny you access to your medical information, and you may appeal certain types of denials.

We have forms available to request access to your PHI, and we will provide you with a written response if we deny you access and let you know your appeal rights. If you wish to inspect and copy your medical information, you should contact the privacy officer listed at the end of this notice.

The Right to amend your PHI: You have the right to ask us to amend written medical information that we may have about you. We will generally amend your information within 60 days of your request, and notify you when we have amended the information. We are permitted by law to deny your request to amend your medical information only in certain circumstances, like when we believe the information you have asked us to amend is correct. If you wish to request that we amend the medical information that we have about you, you should contact the privacy officer listed at the end of this notice.

The right to request an accounting of our use and disclosure of your PHI: You may request an accounting from us of certain disclosures of your medical information that we have made in the last six years prior to the date of your request. We are not required to give you an accounting of information we have used or disclosed for purposes of treatment, payment for health care operations, or when we share your health information with our business associates, like our billing company, or a medical facility from which we have transported you. We are not required to give you an accounting of our uses of protected health information for which you have already given us written authorization. If you wish to request an accounting of the medical information that we have used or disclosed that is not exempted from the accounting requirements, you should contact the privacy officer listed at the end of this notice.

The right to request that we restrict the uses and disclosures of your PHI: You have the right to request that we restrict how we use and disclose your medical information that we have about you for treatment, payment, or health care operations; or to restrict the information that is provided to family, friends, and other individuals involved in your health care. But if you request a restriction and the information you ask us to restrict is needed to provide you with emergency treatment, then we may use the PHI or disclose the PHI to a health care provider in order to provide you with emergency treatment. Edgefield County EMS is not required to agree to any restriction you request, but any restrictions agreed to by Edgefield County EMS are binding upon Edgefield County EMS.

Internet, Electronic Mail, and right to obtain a paper copy of this notice on request: If we maintain a web site, we will promptly post a copy of this notice on our web site and make notice available electronically through the web site. If you allow us, we will forward this notice by electronic mail instead of paper, and you may always request a paper copy of this notice.

Revisions of this Notice: Edgefield County EMS reserves the right to change the terms of this notice at any time, and the changes will be effective immediately, and will apply to all protected health information that we maintain. Any material changes to the notice will be promptly posted in our facilities and posted to our web site, if we maintain one. You can get a copy of the latest revision of this notice by contacting the privacy officer identified below.

Your Legal Rights and Complaints: You also have the right to complain to us, or to the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, if you believe your privacy rights have been violated. You will not be retaliated against in any way for filing a complaint with us or with the government. Should you have any questions, comments, or complaints, you may direct all inquiries to the privacy officer listed at the end of this notice. Individuals will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.

If you have any questions, or wish to file a complaint, or exercise any rights listed in this notice, Please Contact:
